

A & B QUARTERLY/SPECIAL EDITION

They have arrived!

We have had many requests for Butterfly wing jewelry made from some of our more exotic and colorful framed butterflies, so we decided to offer a limited number of our most beautiful Butterflies as necklaces and earrings...And here they are!!

Urania ripheus. The incredible iridescent sunset moth from Madagascar. Both front and hind wings available as earrings or single wing necklace.

Papilio ulysseus. The large blue and black swallowtail from Indonesia. Both front and hind wings available as earrings or single wing necklace. (wing approx 2 1/2 inches long)

Cymothoe sangaris. The only truly ruby red butterfly in the world from Africa. This is a smaller butterfly (about 2") so we are offering it in both single wing and whole butterfly earrings and necklaces. Bright red front and hind wing Graphium weiskie. One of the most colorful butterflies in the world from Papua New Guinea. This is a smaller butterfly (about 2") so we are offering it in both single wing and whole butterfly earrings and necklaces.
